IN MEMORIAM

Edward Pequignot

Born July 15, 1912, a graduate of Pierceton High School, class of 1930, and a resident of Pierceton since then, Ed Pequignot also served several terms as alumni president.

During this time, Ed promoted and was active in a number of things related directly to our school: he originated the annual spring sports banquet and personally emceed it on many occasions; he started the fund raising campaign for outfits worn by the cheer block; he served as sports reporter for the local paper for a number of years; he promoted and took an active part in Little League summer baseball for years; and perhaps, most lastingly and meaningfully, made himself available with advice and encouragement, as well as financial help, to students who desired further education.

In the community Ed was an active member and president of the community service clubs, such as Lions and Commercial Club, he served as postmaster, and consistently, over the years did everything in his power to make his community a better place to live.

With his always cheerful smile and greeting, he was an inspiration to his huge circle of friends and to all who met him. We can say it no better than his friend, the Reverend Bill Clemenson did: "He was a good and faithful servant."

FACULTY AND STAFF

"Can you make me 350 copies immediately, Mr. Reed?" (Our principal is a big help to his secretary!)

Money, money everywhere, especially on Mrs. Porter's desk!

"Mr. Egner, I have a problem . . ." "A big man for a big job!"

Did Mr. and Mrs. Earnhart get some leisure time for Christmas? Perhaps a little!

Mrs. Moe pondering: "Which color shall it be, bloody red, dirty brown, or chartreuse yellow?"

"Mr. Weir, I have told you and told you that if you are going to drink coffee, don't spill it all over the sports page!" states Mr. Mahnensmith.

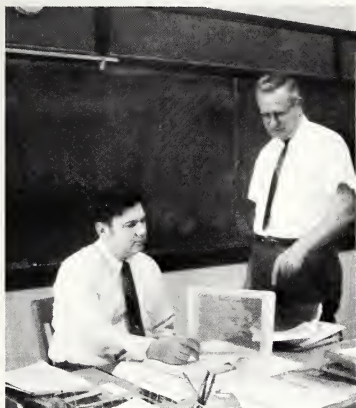

"Watch out, Mr. Surfus, I faint at the sight of blood!" says track team's Kim Shoemaker.

Mrs. Harris: "Isn't this delicious?" Mr. Gates: "Well, I . . . this is what your home economics girls are learning to make?"

"How about this transparency for Chemistry class, Mr. Mowrey?" asks Mr. Woodward.

Mr. Forsberg: "Mr. Marsh, what did you say fell into my coffee?"

"My class is not reading PRIDE AND PREJUDICE like yours, Mr. Weir," states Mrs. Lenwell.

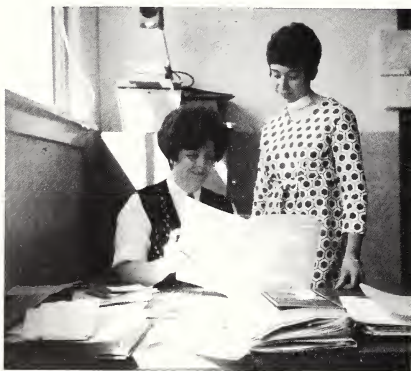

Mr. VanCleave has just told one of his funnies to Mrs. Boley and Mrs. Bryant. Really, such hilarity in the library!

Dune-buggy kids--Mr. Smith, Mr. Rodgers, and Mrs. Kaye--Smith: "Whee, and away we go!"

Mr. Irwin, has anyone told you that you have . . . your book open? Right, Mrs. English?

"Mrs. Boyer, would you take a look at this 'Dear Abby' letter?" asks Miss Thompson.

Mr. Sittler and Mr. Myer strike a rare pose in the athletic office.

The "black gang" (the day this picture was taken) who run the cafeteria: Mrs. Shirley Kreger, manager; Mrs. Madge O'Dell; Mrs. Jean Sleighter; Mrs. Marilee Bailey; Mrs. Rosemary Kerr.

The "gang" who run the buses (every school day): Mr. Bruce Norris and Mr. Bob Conley who run students over Larwill each morning; and Mr. Fern Moe, Mr. Glen Holycross, Mrs. Ruth Gebert, Mr. Charles Collier, Mr. Charles Menzie, Mr. Don Hostetler, Mr. Merl Wertenberger and Mr. Delbert Kreger who run some over to Larwill in the mornings.

This year members of the junior and senior classes presented the play GOOD MORNING, MISS DOVE. The play was about Miss Dove, a beloved and very influential school teacher in the town of Liberty Hill. Many of her graduates came to her for advice, and while in the hospital she was visited by many of her students. However, Miss Dove encountered some difficulties when Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, the richest people in town, brought her before the school board on charges of undue severity to their son. Miss Dove was played by Elaine Carlin and Beth Gerard, Mrs. Bradley by Jean Sellers and Holly Langohr, Mr. Bradley by Bob Jarboe, and George Bradley by Steve Gebert. The play was given on October 21 and 22 under the direction of Mrs. Boley.

Cross-country, captained by Bob Espinoza, had an exceptionally good record this year with some 8 wins and 4 losses.

Outstanding wins were enjoyed in the meets with Northfield and Mentone, as well as at the County meet held at the Warsaw Fairgrounds.

Paced by two outstanding runners, Junior Blaine Farley (who showed great improvement this year), and Sophomore Lee Neher, the runners also exhibited unusual depth with the support of other strong members. With this record, things look very good for next year.

The Cubs defeated Mentone twice by substantial margins and beat Akron once. Pierceton was defeated twice by a strong South Whitley nine and Akron edged the Cubs in the final game of the season 7--6.

Kim Shoemaker, the leading hitter on the team, with an average of over .450 for the six games, as well as leading the team in hitting. Kim had four home runs, three in one game against Mentone.

Lew Kreger finished a fine four-year career at Pierceton, lettering every year and leading the team in hitting as a sophomore, as well as catching every game during the four fall seasons he was playing.

Bill Brandenburg and Kent Cone played in the outfield along with Kim Shoemaker. Bill won one game with a bases loaded single as well as hitting a home run in the same game.

The 69-70 basketball season for the Pierceton Cubs was an extremely interesting one. Finishing with an 11--11 record, the Cubs were on top or challenging in every ball game except one right to the buzzer. Highlights probably came in defeating Akron in the 4-Way Tourney and Manchester in the Sectional. The Cubs played their best ball in February and finished strong with 4 wins in that month.

Long Jump
1/2 mile relay

When the book closed on the 1970 track campaign, six new records had been put on the board. Leading the parade was Lew Kreger who had a hand on two records. Lew broke a 23 year old standard by leaping 21'3" in the long jump at the county meet. Lew also ran the 1st leg of the new 1/2 mile relay record of 1:35.6. Others on the team were Roy Carlin, Kim Shoemaker, and Bill Brandenburg. Brandenburg also put his name on the boards by trying the 220 record of 22.6 seconds.

The other three records were all set by underclassmen. Our mile relay team of Jeff Rager, Randy Walter, Lee Nehr and Paul Carlin ran a fine time of 3:34.7. Blain Farley sliced nearly 9 seconds off the 2-mile record, running a 10:20.6. Alex "Bird" Verba became the first Pierceton High jumper in history to clear 6 feet. He did it three times.
